

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1885.

The British Government denies a reported message of peace from the Czar.

At St. Petersburg more pacific views prevail, but war preparations are incessant.

Mr. T. H. Jones, a merchant at Lexington, was dangerously wounded on Thursday, by the accidental discharge of his pistol.

Dr. A. B. Cooke, of Louisville, is an applicant for the office of Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service.

Hon. W. C. Owens has been invited to be a candidate for re-election as Representative in the Legislature from Scott County.

Some of ex-Secretary Frelinghuysen's friends have hope that he may yet be restored to health, but his family is not so sanguine.

It is rumored that Carter Harrison, after the official count, will resign the Mayoralty of Chicago without waiting for the contest.

Mr. H. SIDNEY EVERETT, son of the late Edward Everett, has been appointed Chief of the Diplomatic Bureau of the State Department.

Over five thousand employees of the Canadian Pacific railroad have quit work, poor pay and bad treatment are said to be the causes of the strike.

A WASHINGTON telegram says that General George B. McClellan would be willing to go to China, and his friends are pressing him for that Mission.

Dr. R. Q. McQuirter, of Lawrenceburg, Ky., formerly State Senator, is an applicant for the office of Consul at Glasgow, the place now held by Bret Harte.

All told there are not now a score of office-seekers in Washington. The complement of Senators and Congressmen remaining will not score a baker's dozen.

The Kentucky Freestone Company, with $100,000 capital, has been organized with headquarters at Lexington. Its purpose is to do a large business in quarrying.

The New York Sun says: "The tempestuous agitation in Michigan, in Iowa, in Wisconsin, in Illinois and in Kansas has broken the scepter of political managers, an introduced an element of discord into the Republican party which threatens to destroy its ascendancy in those States.

BISHOP JAMES W. HARRIS, of Fayetteville, N. C., the presiding officer of the Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, in session in Washington, in his address thankfully ascribed the defeat of Blaine to God, who by the rain which He sent on election day, determined the result in favor of Mr. Cleveland.

The public debt statement will be issued in two forms at the first of each month up to the first of July next, which is the beginning of the next fiscal year. The two forms will include the one issued for the first time April 1st, and the form which had previously been in use by the Department since 1860. It is expected that the new form alone will be used after July 1st.

PENSION Commissioner Black declared that in the appointment of boards of examining surgeons in the various cities of the country to examine applicants for pensions, his policy will be to select from both political parties. Three surgeons constitute a board, and the custom has been to select entirely from Republicans. General Black says he intends to have each board of his selection composed of two Democrats and one Republican.

CHARLES S. HASKELL, a Chattanooga criminal, was arrested by detectives at Cincinnati, on Thursday, at a house on Lexington Avenue, in the company of a woman who formerly lived near this city. She gave her name as Charlotte Hutz, living at 29th surury street, Newport, Ky. She was said to have been in arrested her and that she was a number of children, was Eng. Her present address was 10th and 11th street, and that Mr. Hutz gave her place to some individuals who seem to think that Mrs. Hutz never lived in Cincinnati. At a time she kept house on Plum street, her husband, a man named Haskell, about three years ago, leaving nine children, ranging in age from twenty-nine to nine years.

Some time in last October, at the instigation of a woman named Anna Kretz, she went to Maysville on purpose to play "against" Hutz, who is a bachelorette, and to collect the sum of $100,000 which she had loaned to Hutz, and which Mrs. Hutz gave her to some individuals. It seems that Mrs. Hutz never lived in Cincinnati, but at a time she came to Cincinnati to buy her married garments. The couple were engaged in a number of crimes, and when they went to living on the Haas farm, for a short time, Hutz was compelled to leave, and then the woman began to show herself about, growing tired of her demands for money. He left an easy victim, and within a week was engaged to marry the woman. Kretz, however, was not satisfied. The wedding day was set for two weeks ago, but when the day arrived she gave her name to Cincinnati to buy her married garments. The couple were engaged in a number of crimes, and when they went to living on the Haas farm, for a short time, Hutz was compelled to leave, and then the woman began to show herself about, growing tired of her demands for money. He left an easy victim, and within a week was engaged to marry the woman. Kretz, however, was not satisfied.

A fire which originated in the Buffalo Morning Express building resulted in its entire destruction. Loss $350,000; insurance $100,000.

Rev. Father Pielan, vicar general of the Pittsburgh Catholic diocese, has been appointed postulator to Bishop Tuig, who has been ill several years.

J. N. McMillan, who eloped from Lansing, Mich., with a friend of his wife, was married again to a woman, Mrs. Moore, who were living as man and wife.

The staties of Senator Stanford's Villa ranch, near Red Bluff, Cal., were fired by some tramps as a revenge, and all horses and mules were burned to death.

A DEAF-MUTE'S GRIEVANCES.

Persecuted by His Father, His Mother, and His Brother-in-Law.

CINCINNATI, April 17.—A moving story is told by a deaf midget, Louis F. Daniels the man, and he makes his mother Phoebe Daniels, his father, Louis A. Daniels, and his brother-in-law, Peter, Bryson, defendants. The bill states that he, on May 26, 1882, purchased with his mother a $25,000 estate and on it erected buildings. His mother, whom he calls "wholly impudent, went to live with him, and he kept her in comfort the seven years he has been married to her, and his wife made things very unpleasant. In this he says, she was wholly supported by his father. The father was married to a woman who was unable to live on him, and his wife, Peter, also, said she was unable to live on him. This, however, he declares imposed on his ignorance, and made him believe that he, a deaf-mute, could not transact legal business in his own name, and that the property name is in some body else's name, before he would execute a mortgage on it. His mother, he alleges, was willing to the property assigned to her pro forma, and said she would assign it back to him. He says he has no title to it, and that he has no right to it, and that he has no understanding, he asserts, a sense of trust was made to her, while the mortgage was in his name. He paid, on March 26, 1885, the first part of the amount of the mortgage, and he proposes to pay the balance in full.

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Adolph Bakhaus & Co., Springfield, O., were engaged in having a good sale of PERUNA. It sells as well as any medicine we have, and gives the very best satisfaction.

Mrs. S. S. Goudy of Maysville, Stark county, Ohio, says that he has been treated with general debility and dyspepsia for several years; that he was induced to try PERUNA for his complaints, and that after using three bottles of the medicine he was greatly relieved, and brightened up and gave him energy, and restored him to his youthful vigor. He ascribes his cure to PERUNA, and says it is a wonderful remedy.

Aralph Bakhaus & Co., Springfield, O., were engaged in having a good sale of PERUNA. It sells as well as any medicine we have, and gives the very best satisfaction.

Mrs. G. W. Needham, Newtonville, Clermont County, Ohio, says: "We have been great sufferers for the last six or seven years, with general debility and much pain." She says she has been greatly relieved by PERUNA, which has restored me to perfect health and strength. We think PERUNA is a safe and grand medicine."

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on the Silver Question.

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Speaking of President Cleveland's letter asking for a stoppage of silver coinage, Senator Fair of Nevada, said to a reporter: "What the Senate did is to stop the minting of silver coinage, not to stop the use of silver coinage."

Since then his mother has been repeatedly requested by him, he says, to resign the property to him, but first gave excuses for not doing so, and finally flatly refused. He says he has no further rights than his own, and that his relatives have attempted to carry off all his personal property, furniture, etc.

Senators Fair on

THE DAILY BULLETIN,

SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1885.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Printers,
TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

Once again,
We're forced to say,
BULLETIN short
Of verse to-day.

CIRCUIT Court has adjourned until Monday next at 11 o'clock.

A LARGE lot of tobacco has been delivered at Manchester in the last few days.

A TEASPOONFUL of red pepper and a tablespoonful of salt to half-pint of boiling water, taken hot, is said to be a sure cure for cholera.

G. W. ALEXANDER, a merchant at Batavia Run, Fleming County, who recently made an assignment, has compromised with his creditors at sixty cents on the dollar.

A drove of Asiatic and African elephants, harnessed to golden chariots, are to be seen in the street parade of S. H. Barrett & Co.'s big show at Maysville on May 4th.

In the Circuit Court Friday John Parker, colored, was convicted of shooting at another without inflicting a wound and fined $50 and costs. He is to be put at hard labor in the county jail if he fails to pay his fine.

THE REPORT current yesterday that a negro man named Eli Adams had been killed by Charles Henning, a tenant on the farm of Robert Downing, near Washington, was entirely without foundation. A brother-in-law of the man, reported killed went to the neighborhood last night, and found that no difficulty of any nature between the two men had occurred.

On Thursday, about noon, E. R. Sturtevant, an Inspector of the Postoffice Department, at Flemingsburg arrested Jas. Lenaghan, Jr., on the charge of stealing four registered letters on the 14th day of last November. He at once confessed his guilt, and on his examination before United States Commissioner Harry Andrews, was held in the sum of $1,000, in default of which he was sent to jail. The letters were taken while Lenaghan was acting in the place of Charles Clark, who was temporarily absent from his post.

The jury in the case of the Commonwealth against Lee Montjoy, rendered a verdict of acquittal Friday afternoon. The evidence in the case tended to show that Berry was a raving on Montjoy in a threatening manner when he received his death wounds. When the verdict was announced it was vigorously applauded by some of the spectators in the court room. To say that His Honor, Judge Cole, was completely surprised by the unexpected manifestation of approval, is not for short of the truth. He was "mad." However, it was soon over, the judge satisfying himself by administering a severe rebuke for conduct so unbecoming a court room.

THE FOLLOWING is from the Bourbon News: "George W. Symonds, a romance and war reminiscence writer, who sojourned in Maysville a few years ago, had a large-sized romance in the Saturday Night, of last week, in which he locates the characters of a skating rink episode at that place. Miss Jessie Carruther is the heroine, Colonel Lemuel Seamount, the hero, and Prof. Chauncey De Belleville, the rink professor. The professor ran away with Miss Carruther; the irate father brought them to buy in the ice-gorged Ohio, at Maysville; the professor was rescued from a watery grave by Mr. Seamount, and the professor's wife greeted the dripping husband on the 'Gretna Green,' and of course a wedding took place at Squire Beesley's, but the rink professor took no part in it."

THE COURIER-JOURNAL is the authority for the statement that the heirs of Judas Levi, formerly the market-master of this city, are heirs to an estate of $60,000,000 in London, England. The heirs have called a meeting to be held at the office of Capt. B. C. Levi, No. 174, Fourth street, Louisville, Ky., at 10 o'clock, April 20, 1885, to employ an attorney to proceed to London and receive the estate. The heirs of Judas Levi are scattered throughout the United States, and are all requested to attend this important meeting. The principal heirs to this immense estate are John L. Scott, attorney at law, of Frankfort, Kentucky, and his brothers, Capt. B. C. Levi and his brothers and sisters, of Louisville, Kentucky, and the children of Elias Levi, Zach Levi, Mordeca Levi and the other grand-children of Judas Levi, including the children of Roswell Grant, uncle of General U. S. Grant, all of whom are requested to be present at this meeting at Capt. B. C. Levi's office, April 20, 1885.

WHAT IS A GENTLEMAN?

What is a gentleman? Is it a thing with a scowl, a chain, and a ring, sporting an ey-glass, a limp and a smile? Talking of opera, concertos and balls? Smelling himself, "At Homes," and bantering masquerades, and smoking cigars?

What is a gentleman? Is it one who, speaking no word that can injure or pain others, who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

One who, while railing at actions unjust, holds young hearts in its purity and respects to all men, jewels, or wealth. This is the criterion to take hold of.

What is a gentleman? Is it one who, when he is silent and when he should speak?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his eating the bread he has won; living in his home, and in his conduct, leaving no stain on the path he has trod; thinking of what others may be old, poor, or infirm, or for a gift, giving to the poor?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, seeking not his own, but his God?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

What is a gentleman? Is it not one who, in his conduct, is a true gentleman?

MEXICO'S GRIEVANCES.

GUATEMALA MUST REDRESS A LONG LIST OF OUTRAGES.

The Situation at Panama—Losses Sustained by the Railroad Company—Health of the Marines—Summarily Disposing of a Batch of Bad Rebels.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 18, via Galveston.
Sir:—The Mexican Mail, which comes between Guatemala and the other Central American states, the envys will probably be sent to this city to make the arrangement. Mexico will insist upon a recognition of her own claims against Guatemala. These claims date from 1838. Few persons in Mexico or foreign countries understand their exact nature.

In 1839 Gen. Guzman, with 700 men, invaded Mexico, marching to Coatzacoalcos, in the state of Tabasco. Mexican troops were allowed for eighteen years. From 1838 to 1844 the border warfare became violent. The town of Tapachula was burned, and Coatzacoalcos was destroyed three times by fire, as was also the town of Coatzacoalcos, which is still in ruins. In 1870 Gen. Barrios, now a Mexican in Matamoros, and forced him by torture to deliver his money and go. In 1870 Gen. Barrios assassinated a Mexican in Potosi, and the Mexican government sent him to pieces and threw it in the Mexican's face. Then he ordered the man to be given fifty more lashes for being a Mexican. In the same year the town of Tuxtla was captured and burned by Guzman's forces. Other outrages were committed in 1844. Mexican commercial interests in Guatemala have been wilfully interfered with. In one instance a Mexican house bought a large quantity of coffee in Guatemala, and the export duty was required by a special order of the government, so that the coffee had to be sold at a loss in Guatemala, a small portion only being exported in order to secure a revenue for the claim of compensation. Mexico has, in a few cases, invaded Guatemala, but will obtain redress peacefully if possible.

When the troops of the Colombian government finally entered Colon, after it had been burned by the rebels under the leadership of Dr. Jose Joaquin, captured several hundred rebels. During the last few days the number of these prisoners has been considerably augmented by the receipt of rebels captured in surrounding districts. It is not known now just how many rebels remain in the hold prisoners at Colon, but good authorities place the number at about 400. Authentic information has reached this city that the officers of the Colombian government selected 100 of the worst rebels and sent them to the coast, placing them on board a steamer carried them out into the bay, where the entire 100 were thrown overboard and drowned.

In referring to the losses sustained by the company now in this city says:

"This revolution must cost the Panama road a large amount of money by the delays and damage to property, both fixed and movable, and it may not be recovered by the government if practical intervention. Under the old management there would have been a possible redress by withholding the subsidy which the Panama company paid to the Colombian government for the road. The subsidy amounted to $1,000,000, and constituted the principal income on which the government could rely. In old times any interference with the road on the part of disaffected persons or revolutionaries could be paid for out of the subsidy, but in the present situation the difference, for a short time before the Panama people sold out to the French, the subsidy was paid out in advance for a term of years on application of the Colombian government. None of us opposed the payment on the ground that it deprived us of all control of the situation. But Mr. Trend Park advocated it, because he thought being out of debt would assist our negotiations with Dr. Jose Joaquin. So we paid out the subsidy for a term of years, and now the road has no funds in hand belonging to the Columbians out of which it could recuperate itself. There are 12,000 or 15,000 men of all ages in the Panama who are engaged on the canal. From all accounts they are disposed to be very turbulent. In fact, I rather wonder that they do not claim citizenship and take possession of the country; they could do easily enough. I am afraid the revolution will be allowed by the government will, if they stay on the isthmus any length of time, suffer greatly from sickness. Of course everything that discipline and strict law will be done for their sanitation, but under the most favorable auspices Panama is an unwholesome residence."

Good Order on the Isthmus.
CINCINNATI, April 18.—Secretary Whaley received a telegram from Admiral Joost: "I enclose the following your order. Good order continues. Our men are all sound and comfortable."

PANAMA, April 17, via Galveston.—The party, consisting of Capt. Henry B. Biddle, Capt. W. H. McIlvain, and Capt. Webster, left here for Balboa on the Isthmus. They were accompanied from their offices. Admiral Joost visited Panama and inspected the detachment of United States marines there. They are a fine body of men, and are in good health and spirits. An attack by the government forces from Bocas del Toro is imminent.

Don Platt's cousin writes:

CINCINNATI, April 18.—Ben. M. Platt, of the law firm of Housnell, Platt & Helm, committed suicide in his office by shooting himself through the head with a bulldog revolver. He was recognized as Oscar Ferrell, formerly a wealthy and prominent citizen, now the count of King Oscar, and supplied the retinue of the royal domain. Unfortunate speculation ruined him, and he has for years been a tramp.

"Play the Sermons of a Poor Old Man." CINCINNATI, April 18.—A man, prematurely gray, ragged and unkempt, was a prisoner in a southside police court, on a charge of vagrancy. He was recognized as Oscar Ferrell, formerly a wealthy and prominent citizen, now the count of King Oscar, and supplied the retinue of the royal domain. Unfortunate speculation ruined him, and he has for years been a tramp.

DON'T!

Don't believe that we present an excellent Waterbury Watch with every $15 purchase.

Don't believe that we give a Hat with every Ready-made Suit we sell.

Don't believe that we carry the Largest, Best-selected and Handsomest stock of Goods in the State.

Don't believe that you can get more solid value for your money from us than from any Cincinnati clothing house.

Don't believe that we are getting up, this Spring, Handsomer Work than any other Merchant Tailoring House in the State.

Don't believe any of the above facts until you come to our house and be convinced that all this is literally true. Respectfully,

HECHINGER & CO.,
Oddfellows' Hall Clothing House, Maysville.

CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, and WINDOW SHADES.

Cotton Chain Ingrains, Cotton Chain Extra Supers, all-wool Extra Supers, and Tapestry Brussels.

50 CENTS

will buy a fine Carpet. When you want to buy a Carpet go where the best variety is found, at the lowest prices. 4-4,5-4 and 6-4 Oil Cloths at 25, 30, 35 and 40 cents a yard. Window Shades and Lace Curtains at the LOWEST PRICES. Examine our stock before you buy.

J. W. SPARKS & BRO.,
No. 24 Market Street, Maysville, Ky.

Albert Greenwood.

LATEST STYLES IN —

WALL PAPERS, WINDOW SHADES,
and DECORATIONS; Mixed Paints and Artist's Materials. Everything New. All Goods marked down.

HENRY ORT,

— DEALER IN —

FURNITURE.

A Large stock of the latest styles of Furniture just received for the Spring Trade, at Manufacturers' prices.

Cincinnati Prices Discounted.

Give me a call. Second Street, next to "the tallest house in town," Maysville, Ky.

— GO TO —

J. BALLENCER

— FOR —

FINE JEWELRY,

DIAMONDS, WATCHES, ETC.

Bridal and Anniversary Gifts a specialty. A large stock to select from at all times. A trial is solicited and satisfaction guaranteed.

CYCLONE OF BARGAINS!

Five hundred Fine Corkscrew Suits in all Styles and Colors at $15; worth $25. Five hundred Fancy Plaid Suits at $12; worth $18. Six hundred Cassimere Suits, all styles, at $10; worth $20. My stock of Boys' and Children's Suits is complete in every department.

SOME CLOTHING FACTS:

The Brightest, the most Tasteful, the Prettiest Finished, the most carefully Low Priced—in a word, the most satisfactory and desirable Clothing for Men, Youths and Children to be found in the State, is sold at the Red Corner Clothing House.

LOUIS ZECH. Proprietor.

HERMANN LANGE,

—The Jeweler, is receiving the latest styles of—

FINE JEWELRY,

Watches, Diamonds, Silverware, Clocks and Novelties. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. No. 43 Second Street, three doors below Market, Maysville, Ky.

CLEARANCE SALE FOR CASH!

As trustee for A. R. BURGESS, I offer the stock of Dry Goods contained in his store, No. 522 Main Street, at greatly reduced prices. Underwear at 50 cents; Stockings at 25 cents; Socks at 15 cents; Men's Underwear at 25 cents; Great bargains in Hosiery, Towels, Napkins, Table Linens, Etc.

Choice line of Cassimere at cost. All persons indebted to the said Burgess will be paid to make prompt payment, as it will be my duty, as trustee, to wind up the business speedily.

JAMES W. HICKLEY, Trustee.

M. DAVIS,

—OF THE OLD RELIABLES—

CLOTHIER!

Have just received an immense stock of CLOTHING, comprising Men's, Youth's and Boys' goods; also GENTS FURNISHING GOODS.

HATS, CAPS, TRUNKS and VALISES, which he will sell at PANIC PRICES. You will do well to call and see him before purchasing elsewhere.

Mr. & Mrs. Wm. M. Davis

M. DAVIS.

WALL PAPER!

For Beautiful designs my stock of Wall Paper is complete. Also BOOKS, STATIONERY, FANCY GOODS, GOLD PENS, PICTURE FRAMES, &c. We will take pleasure in showing our stock to all. PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY in the same building.

J. T. KACKLEY,

MAYSVILLE, KY.

C. S. MINER & BRO.,

ESTABLISHED 1859—DEALERS IN—

BOOTS, Leather and Findings
SHOES, MAYSVILLE, KY.

W. W. McIlvain.

R. G. Humphreys.

McILVAIN & HUMPHREYS,

(Successors to MYALL & RILEY.)

Attention, Farmers! For the next few days we will offer a splendid line of HAY BAKERS at greatly reduced prices. McIlroy, Milburn, Webster and Mitchell

WAGONS!

We still have on hand a few Planet Junior TOBACCO CULTIVATORS. Also a full and complete stock of all kinds of and repairs always on hand. Don't fail to give us a call at No. 47, West Second street, McIlroy & Riley's old stand, Maysville, Ky.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS